LANDESSEKTION TIROL

The Association of Austrian Chefs, national section Tyrol

is organizing

4. Big Cooking Contest

Fafga 2010

20 international youth teams up to the age of 25! Deadline: 30 June 2010

At the FAFGA in Innsbruck 20 cooking teams of 2 persons will compete from September 13 until September 15, 2010. In order to organize this cooking contest two completely equipped kitchens and a stand for 120 spectators, from which the audience can watch the contest, will be built up in the exhibition hall 4a.

Furthermore the contest is part of the fair and should become the highlight of the Tirol Catering Fair 2010.

Creative knowledge

The challenge is, to prepare within half an hour a main dish with the ingredients of a basket full of Tyrolean products. The competitors have no previous information about the ingredients.

Two teams are always competing with each other. The results will be judged by an international top-class jury, presided by Reinhold Metz (President of WACS Europe) and Hans Haller, gold medal winner and chef.

The best four teams will again compete in the semi-finals and in the final. The criteria for judging are based on the guidelines of the World Association of Chefs Societies (WACS)!

Nice prizes are waiting for the winning team!

Prize money – Youth Teams

We would like to distribute the same prize money as in the previous competitions.

According to the international guidelines (WACS) the competitors may not be older than 25 years.

Prize money per team:

- | | |
|---------|---------|
| 1. Rank | € 2,000 |
| 2. Rank | € 1,600 |
| 3. Rank | € 1,200 |
| 4. Rank | € 1,000 |

and 8 trophies

Schedule - Youth Teams

Monday and Tuesday, September 13 and 14: qualifying

Wednesday, September 15: semi-finals and final, followed by an event and the distribution of prizes

The Big Cooking Contest has been organized for three years now and has become the most important cooking event in Austria for youth teams and apprentices. The event is trendy, cool, accompanied with music and a presenter is responsible for entertainment including interviews with spectators and fair guests. The criteria for judging are based on the guidelines of the World Association of Chefs Societies (WACS)!

Accommodation:

From September 12 (earliest journey) to 15, 2010, accommodation and meals are provided by the Section Tirol. Please note that the participants have to reserve the requested accommodation on their own at the following address:

Villa Blanka Innsbruck - Tourismsschulen und Internate - Weiherburggasse 31, A-6020 Innsbruck, phone: 0043.512.292413.

Reservations have to be done by September 6, 2010. A free shuttle service for the return trip to the venue will be organized all days of the competition.

Date of the event

During the FAFGA
from Monday, 13 September to Wednesday, 15 September 2010

Participation – team composition

A team consists of 2 persons in the vocational field cook (trainees, cook pupils, students, pupils of a school for the hotel and restaurant industry – hotel management school or tourism college - or young cooks who have finished their apprenticeship). The competitors may not be older than 25 years (U 25/deadline: 30.06.2010), which means they may not be born before 30 June 1985. A passport may be requested as evidence of age.

If a team consists of 2 young people under the age of 18, a coach, who has to accompany the team, has to be named. Accommodation for competitors and coach including half-board is provided for free by the section Tyrol. Participants only have to bring their traditional cook clothing (white). The work tool (measurer suit-case) is placed by the section. Other aids are not certified. The decision which 2 teams are competing in the qualifying is taken by the section Tyrol.

The coach is responsible for his team. He is allowed to be present during the competition, but not to help “manually”. Furthermore, while his team is cooking, he is not allowed to stay in the coaching area.

The challenge

The challenge is, to prepare within half an hour a main dish with ingredients of a basket full of Tyrolean products. The competitors have no previous information about the ingredients.

(5 minutes to have a look at the ingredients, 5 minutes preparation time, then name the main dish and then 30 minutes for cooking and finally arranging on 4 plates) To 15. 09 a sweet main food must be created in the semi-final from the Goods basket. The allowed time amounts to in this round 45. Min. In the final a cold main food must be prepared from the given Goods basket. The allowed time amounts to in the final 30. Min.

Two teams are always competing with each other. The results will be judged by an international top-class jury.

The best four teams will again compete in the semi-finals and in the final. The criteria for judging are based on the guidelines of the World Association of Chefs Societies (WACS)!
